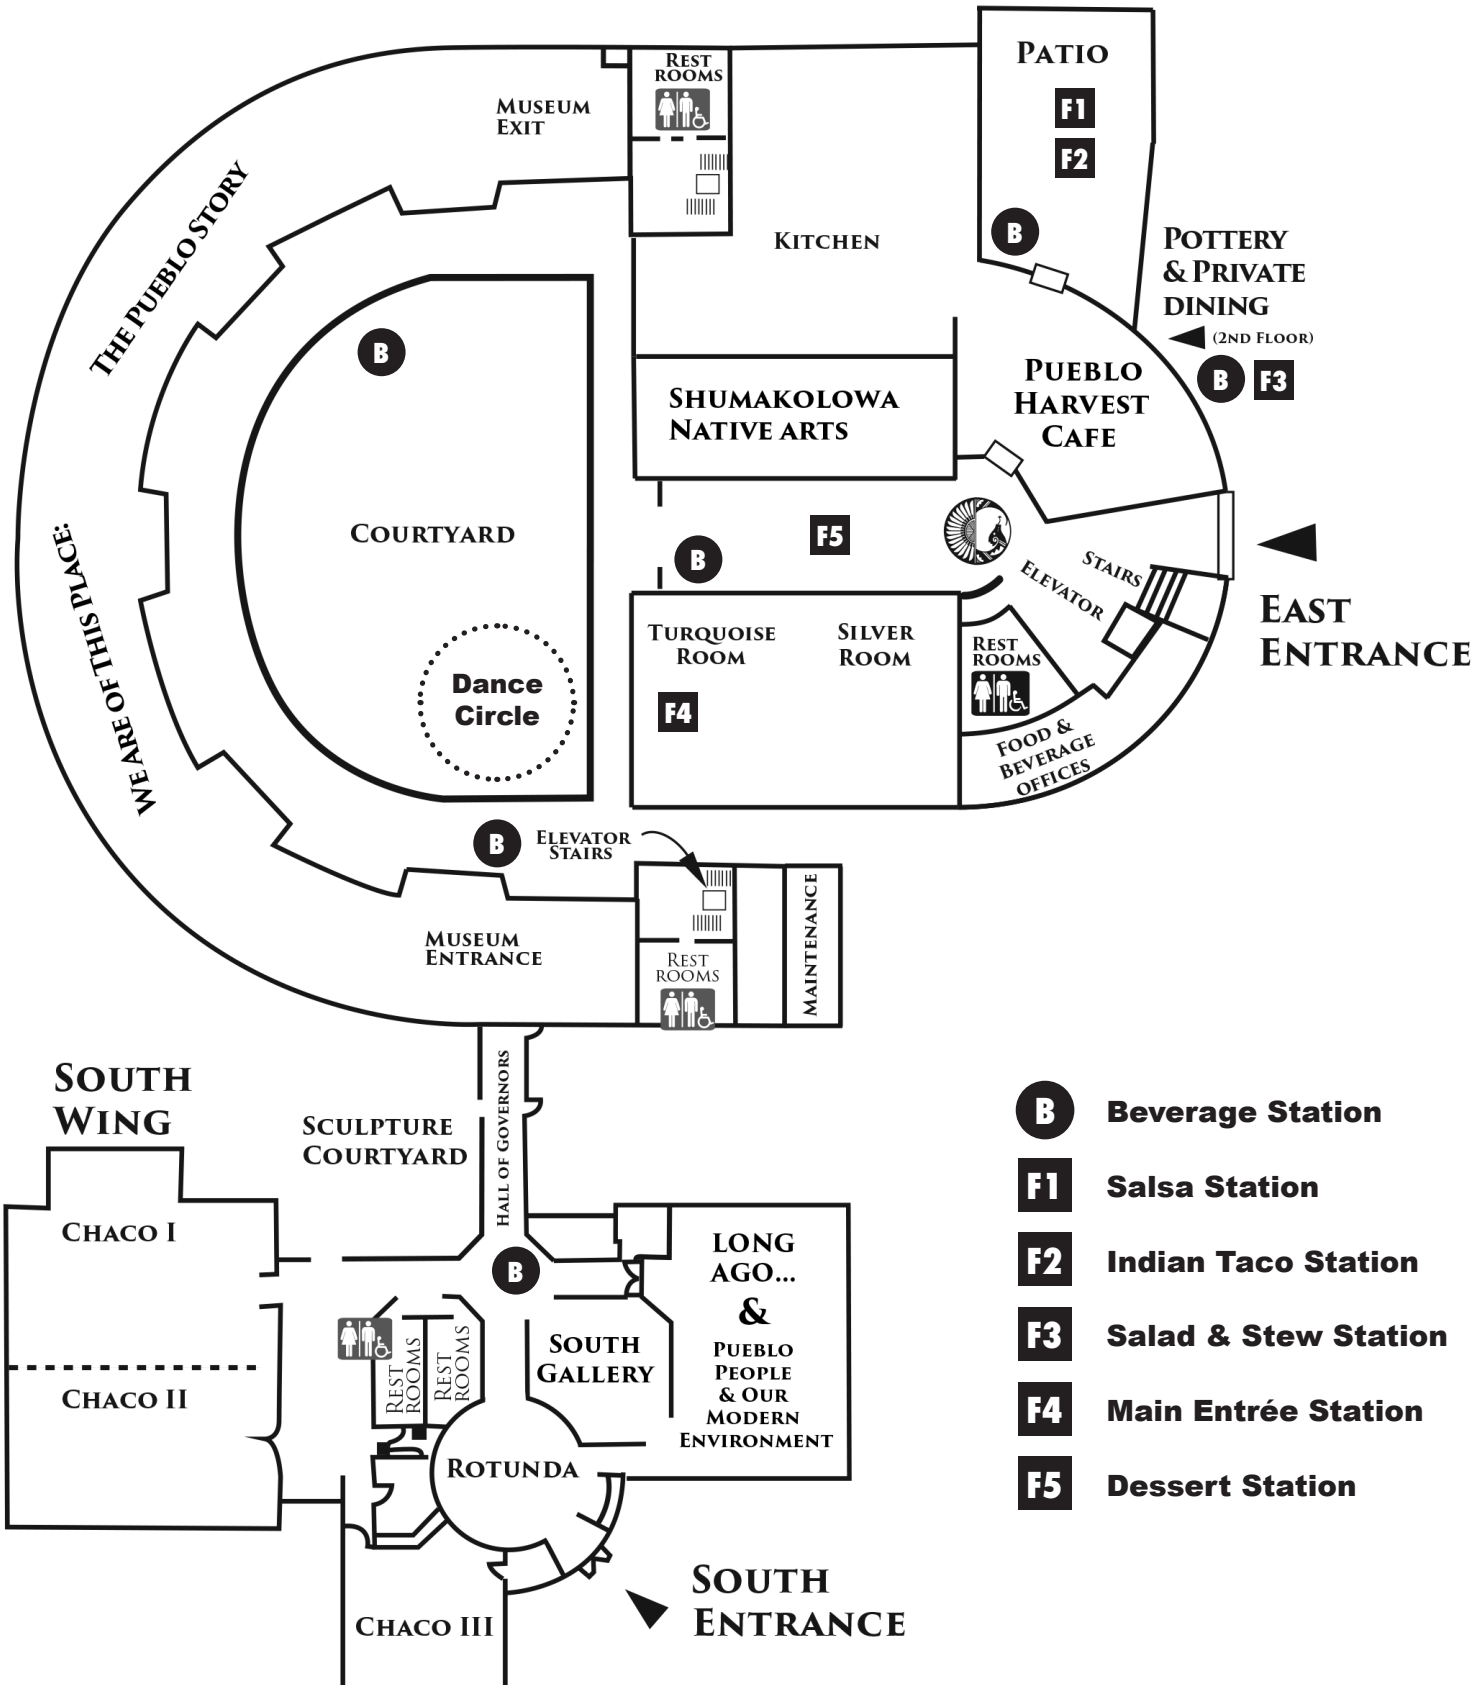
Indian Pueblo Cultural Center

Gateway to the 19 Pueblos of New Mexico

ABSA International
Tuesday Evening
Special Event
October 17, 2017



B	Beverage Station
F1	Salsa Station
F2	Indian Taco Station
F3	Salad & Stew Station
F4	Main Entrée Station
F5	Dessert Station

Food & Drink

Enjoy discovering the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and Pueblo cuisine while visiting Food and Beverage Stations located throughout the Center. The IPCC's Pueblo Harvest Café was recently featured on Episode 2 of Guy Fieri's Family Road Trip and Executive Chef David Ruiz participated in 2016 on Chopped (both on Food Network).

F1 Salsa Station (patio)

- House-made Salsa, Pico de Gallo, Tomatillo Dip
- Corn Chips
- Sweet Potato, Beet, and House-made Potato Chips
- All gluten free and vegan

F2 Indian Taco Station (patio)

- Fry Bread Demonstration (fry bread contains lard and gluten)
- Ground Beef cooked with diced onion and tomato
- Pueblo Beans (vegan)
- Shredded Cheese, Lettuce, Tomato and Onion
- Flour Tortillas (vegan)
- Blue/Red Corn Tortillas (gluten free, vegan)
- Red and Green Chile Sauces (gluten free, vegan)

F3 Salad & Stew Station (upstairs, Pottery Room)

- Smoked Corn Soup (gluten free, vegetarian (contains milk))
- Acoma Red Chile Feast Day Stew (contains pork)
- Lettuce Salad (vegan) with Assorted Toppings
- Red Chile Vinaigrette (gluten free)
- Green Chile Ranch Dressing
- Ranch Dressing
- Pueblo Oven Bread (contains lard) with Green Chile Butter (gluten free bread upon request)

F4 Main Entrée Station (Turquoise & Silver Room)

- Jemez Enchiladas (vegetarian – contains cheese)
- Blue Corn Fried Chicken
- Pueblo Beans (vegan)
- Picuris Calabacitas (zucchini, corn, green chile sauté – vegan)
- Red and Green Chile Sauces (gluten free, vegan)

F5 Dessert Station (foyer)

- Pueblo Oven Bread Pudding
- Assorted Pueblo Pies (fruit-filled)
- Biscochitos (State Cookie of New Mexico)
- Cheesecake (gluten-free)
- Brownies (vegan)

Beverage Stations

No charge:

- Iced Tea
- Water
- Starbuck's Coffee

Cash or Drink Ticket:

- Domestic Beer
- House Wine
- Certain non-alcoholic drinks such as soft drinks

Cash:

- Full bar located on the patio and at selected beverage stations

Seating is located in the Silver and Turquoise Room, the patio, upstairs in the Pottery and Private Dining Room and balcony, and outdoors in the courtyard.

Things to Do

Visit:

- "We Are Of This Place: The Pueblo Story" which showcases the history, culture, and arts of New Mexico's Pueblo people (Museum)
- "Long Ago. . ." guides visitors through the Pueblo people's rich heritage of storytelling while "Pueblo People & Our Modern Environment" explores cutting-edge issues of energy and ecology as they relate to our evolving way of life (South Exhibition Gallery)
- Sculpture Courtyard
- You may take beverages with you – but no food, please!
- Open 6 to 9 p.m.

Shop at Shumakolowa Native Arts

- Offers quality, authentic Native art created by local and regionally established artists.
- Open until 8:30pm

View a Traditional Buffalo Dance in the Dance Circle in the Courtyard

- Performed by Pueblo dancers
- 7:30 to 8:00pm; 8pm to 8:30 p.m.

Enjoy Felix Y Los Gatos on the patio

- Felix Y Los Gatos is one of the best party bands in New Mexico - Americana, Blues, Cumbia, 30sJazz, Ranchera, Swing, Tex Mex and Zydeco!
- 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.

Catch up with friends and colleagues

- Seating is located throughout the Center. Wood and gas bonfires will be lit throughout outdoor spaces (weather permitting)

Getting To and From the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center

- Buses will shuttle from the Convention Center to the IPCC between 5:45 and 6:15p.m. Buses may drop off at either the museum entrance or at the patio entrance.
- Buses will shuttle from the IPCC to the Convention Center beginning at 8:30 p.m. with the last bus departing IPCC at 10 p.m.