Popular Charleston and Vicinities Attractions [Distance from Convention Center]

- South Carolina Aquarium [100 Aquarium Wharf – 9.4 miles] has over 50,000 animals. You can see a rare albino American alligator, get hands-on at the Touch Tank, marvel at the sharks in the Great Ocean Tank, come face-to-face with rays in the Shallows, or see the new state-of-the-art sea turtle hospital in the new Zucker Family Sea Turtle Recovery experience.
- Charles Towne Landing State Historic Park [1500 Old Towne Rd – 5.9 miles] introduces visitors to the earliest colonial history of Charleston. Interact with hands-on exhibits in the Visitor Center, talk to knowledgeable staff members, and take an audio tour on the self-guided history trail.
- Fort Sumter National Monument [Charleston Harbor – 9.4 miles to boat] is the site of America's most tragic conflict, where the first battle of the Civil War was waged between Union and Confederate forces on April 12, 1861. The fort is only accessible by boat.
- Fort Moultrie \(Part of Fort Sumter National Monument\) [1214 Middle St, Sullivan's Island – 16.9 miles] is the site of America's most tragic conflict, where the first battle of the Civil War was waged between Union and Confederate forces on April 12, 1861. The fort is only accessible by boat.
- Charles Pinckney National Historic Park [1254 Long Point Rd, Mt Pleasant – 15 miles]. This remnant of his coastal plantation is preserved to tell the story of a "founding father," his life of public service, the lives of enslaved African Americans on South Carolina Lowcountry plantations and their influences on Charles Pinckney.
- Colonial Dorchester State Historic Park [300 State Park Rd, Summerville – 12.5 miles] Colonial Dorchester State Historic Site's remarkably preserved archaeological remains give visitors a peek into the early history of colonial South Carolina.
- Charleston City Market [Market St – 9.3 miles] is one of the nation's oldest public markets and the cultural heart of Charleston, home to more than 300 vibrant entrepreneurs and many restaurants.
- Aiken-Rhett House [48 Elizabeth St – 8.7 miles] The house and its surviving furnishings offer a compelling portrait of urban life in antebellum Charleston, as well as a Southern politician, slaveholder and industrialist.
- The Calhoun Mansion [16 Meeting St – 9.9 miles] is a baronial Italianate manor house, widely acclaimed as one of the great post Civil War homes on the Eastern Seaboard. It is Charleston's Gilded Age Mansion.
- The Edmondston-Alston House [21 East Battery – 11.4 miles]. The grand piazza provides incredible views of the Charleston harbor and the inside of the mansion is filled with 19th-century furniture, paintings, silver and books that belonged to the Alston family.
- The Heyward-Washington House [87 Church St – 9.8 miles] Built in 1772, this Georgian-style double house was the town home of Thomas Heyward, Jr., one of four South Carolina signers of the Declaration of Independence. The property features the only 1740s kitchen building open to the public in Charleston as well as formal gardens featuring plants commonly used in the South Carolina Lowcountry in the late 18th century.

- The Joseph Manigault House [350 Meeting St – 8.7 miles] One of Charleston's most exquisite antebellum structures, the Joseph Manigault House, built in 1803, reflects the urban lifestyle of a wealthy, rice-planting family and the enslaved African Americans who lived there.
- The Nathaniel Russel House [51 Meeting St – 9.8 miles] is widely recognized as one of America's most important neoclassical dwellings. Today, the interiors are restored to their original 1808 grandeur and surrounded by formal gardens.
- Old Exchange & Provost Dungeon [122 East Bay St – 10.1 miles] Explore the location where pirates were once held and view a section of the 1698 fortification that once protected the Walled City. Completed in 1771 as the New Exchange and Customs House, where Patriots were imprisoned, the Constitution was ratified and George Washington was entertained.
- The Powder Magazine [79 Cumberland St – 9.5 miles] The only public building still standing in the Carolinas from the period of the Lords Proprietors, this was the site where powder was stored for the defense of the city during the 17th century to the period of the American Revolution.
- McLeod Plantation Historic Site [325 Country Club Dr – 9.9 miles] established in 1851, is an important 37-acre Gullah/Geechee heritage site that has been carefully preserved in recognition of its cultural and historical significance. The grounds include a riverside outdoor pavilion, a sweeping oak allée, and the McLeod Oak, which is thought to be more than 600 years old.
- Magnolia Plantation & Garden [3550 Ashley River Rd – 10.4 miles] has magnificent views of the sunset on the ocean. La Jolla cove is a spectacular natural setting with restaurants and shops nearby.
- Drayton Hall [3380 Ashley River Rd – 10.5 miles] Founded in 1738, Drayton Hall is the nation's earliest example of fully executed Palladian architecture and the oldest preserved plantation house in America still open to the public.
- Middleton Place House Museum [4300 Ashley River Rd - 14 miles] The historic preservation work and interpretation of history at Middleton Place focuses on major contributions of the Middleton family as well as the enslaved Africans and African Americans who lived and worked here.

Charleston Shopping

- Tanger Outlet [4840 Tanger Outlet Blvd - 0.8 miles] Experience head-turning style and incredible savings on over 85 brands like Saks Fifth OFF 5TH, American Eagle, Ann Taylor, Banana Republic Factory, Michael Kors and more.
- Northwoods Mall [2070 Sam Rittenberg Blvd – 6.7 miles] Charleston's largest shopping mall, Northwoods features more than 130 fashion-forward retailers like American Eagle Outfitters, New York & Company, Victoria's Secret and Express Men. Mall anchors include department favorites like Sears, JCPenney, Dillard's, Books-A-Million and Belk. A food court and other on-site dining options such as Olive Garden and Jason's Deli provide the fuel necessary for successful shopping. The mall also has a 13-screen movie theater..
- Citadel Mall [2070 Sam Rittenberg Blvd – 6.7 miles] Find great retailers like Belk, Dillard's, Sears & Target, over 60 specialty stores, restaurants & IMAX theatre. Shop Bath & Body Work, Journeys, LOFT and more.
- Charleston City Market [Market St – 9.3 miles] is one of the nation's oldest public markets and the cultural heart of Charleston, home to more than 300 vibrant entrepreneurs and many restaurants.
- King Street [Downtown – 8.3 miles] The main artery of downtown, King Street is the thoroughfare where Charleston's past and present meet. Chic and edgy boutiques mingle with grande dame hotels and multi-generation owned local businesses. Antique shops from the 1920s are steps away from the ever-changing restaurant and sophisticated cocktail scene.

The more I thought, the more it appeared that Creation supplies us with two kinds of things: necessities and extras. Sunlight, air, water, food, shelter - these are among the bare necessities. With them we can exist. But moonlight and starlight are distinctly extras; so are music, the perfumes, flowers. The wind is perhaps a necessity; but the song that it croons through the morning pines is a different thing."

If These Walls Could Talk...

Located on the grounds at Boone Hall Plantation is an iconic structure that has a history all of its own. A building which is nestled in a majestic setting on a tidal marsh amongst over three centuries of history, beauty, and grace.

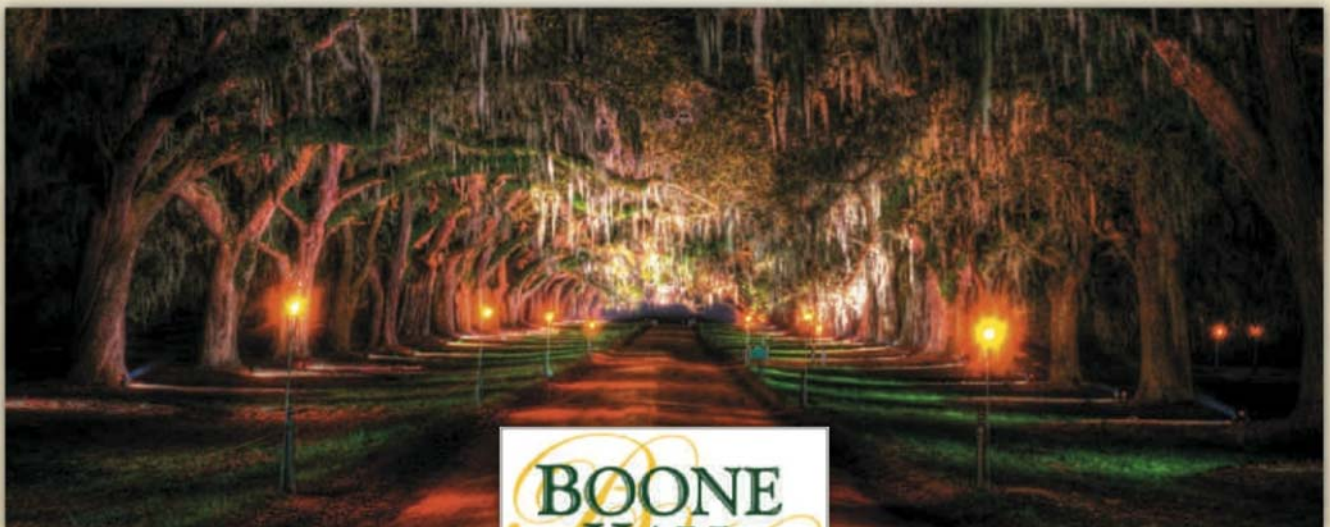

A rustic building whose walls if they could talk would speak proudly of a guest list over the years which has included Presidents and prominent politicians, celebrities, businesses, families and friends old and new. This legendary structure sets the stage for celebrating some of life's most special moments... and launching new beginnings of every kind.

Welcome to The Cotton Dock at Boone Hall Plantation.
